LETTER FROM CULPEPER.

[Correspondence Alexandria Gazette] CULPEPER, Va., Nov. 16 -Walter Ross, a one wooden-legged negro, was tried and convicted here yesterday in the County Court for breaking into the store at night of Mr. B. M. Stone, a merchant at Mitchell's Station, about two weeks ago. The imprint of the null heads of his peg leg lead to his de-tection, and when being tried by Squire James Goodson, he vowed he was penniless, but the justice having sent the leg to be compared with the tracks, the constable reversing the leg caused some five or six dollars in silver coin to fall to the floor, and it was discovered that the top of the e; had quite a large cavi y loaded with rage, and in which be mede his deposits Attermaking that dis-covery they gave his clothes a thorough search and found hidden in different larts thereof some nine or ten dollars more in notes and silver. It is our opinion that in time past Ross gave your authorities a great deal of trouble. Mr. Matthews is holding a mission at the chapet near Mitchells and is doing a wonderfully good work.

The present delignful Indian sum mer weather is being utilized by the farmers generally in adding more wheat to the already large acresse sown. The regular term of the C rouit Court begins to day. HIS WIFE WAITED .- Richard Harris, of Petersburg, two years ago shot and killed Buck Mallory, a widely-known sporting man, on the street in that city in the night. There had long been feud between the men. After a long and closely contested trial, Harris was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary. He so conducted himself that several months were taken off his sentence for good behavior. On Monday tence for good behavior. On Monday his term expired, and he was set free. Harris, not long before the commission of the crime, had been married to a beautiful girl. The untoward event, for which he was not altogether to blame, prevented the young couple from going on their bridal tour. The young wife remained faithful to her nusband through the months he spent in the penitentiary, going to see him whenever possible. On Monday moru ing when Harris came forth from the bound train at quarter before nine o'cicck over the Richmond, Fredericks burg and Potomac Railroad for a bridal trip, which will last some weeks. Har ris has many warm friends in Peters-burg, who believe that he was forced to shoot Mallory in self defense.

THE PECKER MUTINEERS .- John Anderson and his five shipmates from the ill-fa el schooner Olive Pecker are quietly awaiting Lay by Some Money for a Rainy Day. schooner Olive Pe ker are quietly awaiting their fate in the Norfo'k city jail. In the case of John Anderson, if the scaffold does not await him, he will probably go to a fate which is but little better—a long term of imprisonment—probably imprisonment for life. As for his mates, it is hard to predict what a jury will do It is something of a question as to when the prisoners will be tried. Judge Robert W. Hughes, who will preside at the trial, on Monday made the following state ment of the situation: "The grand jury will act upon the case on the 17th instant, and the trial in open court will come off in the week before Christmas week, or in the first week of January. I would like to bring on the trial of Anterson sooner than I have stated, but do not whether it can be done." ed, but doubt whether it can be done."

Household Gods.

The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods in every home. The household god of to-day is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds, and for all affections, of Threat Chest and Lungs it is invalu-Throat, Chest and Lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure, or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at E. L. Allen's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
